Design Themes

Town Theme:

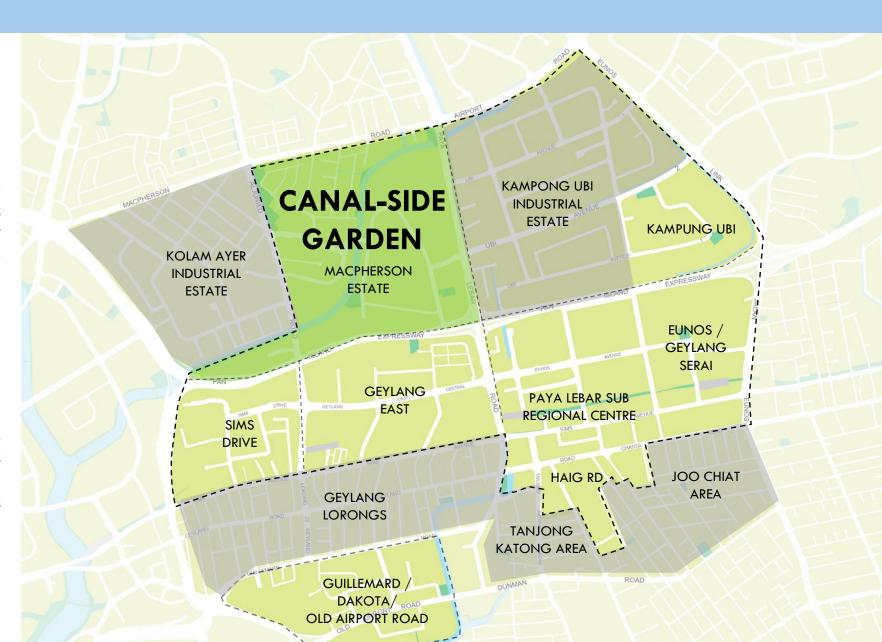

Vibrant Streets in the Cultural Heartland

Concept and design considerations to be inspired by the vibrancy of the town's cultural richness and urban heritage that give the area its identity and distinctive character.

Sub-Theme:

Canal-side Garden Community

Weaving through the estate, and Pelton Canal is a key corridor in the neighbourhood. Due to its former use as a plantation, many of its existing roads are named after flowers and birds, and some of the public housing precincts have garden-related names.

Project Description

MacPherson Weave is situated along Circuit Road, Circuit Link and Paya Lebar Road, bordered by MacPherson MRT and MacPherson Blossom.

- The name 'MacPherson Weave' pays homage to its colorful façade which has interweaving bands of colours, inspired by tropical fruits grown in Singapore
- The development will include the Chap Lau Walk*, a corridor through the development paying homage to the colourful and retro Aljunied 10-storey HDBs in the area. Along this central spine, fruit and daily items are featured in motifs present in gardens, fitness areas and children's playgrounds, referencing the area's rich history.
- 7 residential blocks ranging from 15 to 19 storeys in height

*Chap Lau means 10-storey in Hokkien.
